Dear Parents,

What a week! It was so good to be back yesterday. Please see below for some highlights from our (short!) week.

- On Tuesday we made pencil sketches of snow covered landscapes and attempted a football themed "popsicle stick" challenge. The challenge is attached below if you'd like to give it a try! Later that morning, we learned a new math game, Rush Hour. This is a great way to practice telling time and we all agreed that Hugo would approve of a clock game :). Tuesday afternoon we continued our buddy work with Ms. Bia's class. We're expanding our understanding and measuring of perimeters to other polygons beyond rectangles.

- On Friday we practiced Rush Hour and continued reading Hugo. We also learned a new song about the snow (sung to the tune of London Bridge). Groups then wrote their own verse to the song! Feel free to sing our class version!

Snowflakes falling through the air
On my face, on my hair.
Even on my teddy bear!
It is snowing!

Wear your jacket and your hat
You'll be warm, just like that.
Make a snowman, big and fat!
It is snowing!

Maggie and Hawk:
Put your mittens on your head
It is dark, time for bed.
I close my eyes and dream of Fred!
It is snowing!

Jessica and Petro:

I saw snowflakes falling down
Through the city, through the town.
It was a very shiny crown!
It is lovely!

Elias and Barry:

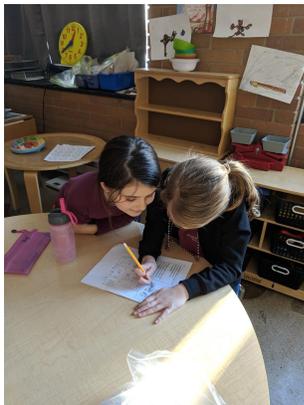

Pokemon are in the snow
You want to eat? They all say "no."
Now they're mad, it's time to go!
Go, go, go, go!

Christina, Tempess, and Niko:

I have a friend, his name is Fred
He is sledding on his sled.
It is time for bed for Ted!
It is snowing!

Paige and Elena:

It is snowing thick and big
I have a wig, put on a pig.
When he's hungry, feed him a fig!
It is snowing!

<-- These guys decided indoor recess meant a day at the spa!
